Chair's Notes

Dear Alumni,
Welcome to the second installment of the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry's alumni newsletter. Much has transpired in the department since the launching of our inaugural newsletter, and I'm delighted to be able to bring you up to date. ### Faculty News [news/33201-faculty-news/]

We extend a warm welcome to Laurie Littlepage, the newest member of our faculty who joined us this summer. As an assistant professor, Laurie will be directing research in the Mike and Josie Harper Cancer Research Institute. Prior to joining us, Laurie was a postdoctoral fellow at UCSF. She obtained her doctorate in cell and molecular biology from Harvard and holds a B.S. in biochemistry and molecular biology from the University of Texas. Hearty congratulations to Graham Lappin and Brad Smith who were named Fellows of the Royal Society of Chemistry this past year. Graham, who has been a faculty member since 1982, is a mechanistic inorganic chemist who specializes in electron-transfer and atom-transfer reactions. As Department Chair from 1993-2002 and again from 2005-2009, he oversaw the growth of many facets of the department. [Read More \[\\[/news/33202-faculty-awards/\\]\]\(#\)](#) interest. My chemistry teacher left a lot of information open that my classmates and I questioned and then my physics teacher, Fr. David, was awesome and filled us with the wonders of how and why things work from the atomic level on up. Then, my sophomore year at North Dakota State, my organic teacher, Socrates Peter Pappas.
